| SB | 13:00 | A/Commr. Finn | A/Commr. Finn informed the FP CROPS that the integrated plan is now scaling down on resources. In fact, we have the necessary resources in between the OPP and the RCMP. Thus, for the next 2 to 3 days, we will maintain a 200 member posture (400 in total) around the public order event management since the situation in Ottawa remarkably improved in crowd management.In the media, the situation has improved. In fact, the media has been complimentary. Mark Lacasse lead a great integrated command.We currently plan for 75 members to be replaced on Wednesday from C and O Division, therefore we will be able to see if we need more members on Thursday. We want to minimize the Article 9, therefore we are using federal resources. Additionally, we are optimistic. This weekend will be a test for Ottawa.Through the GSB mailbox, we've shared the Emergency Act Placemat as well as the Q&A provided by legal. The Q&A is protected B and for RCMP only.As for the Emergency Act, it was first announced last week and it may now be in a week range which is contrary to the previous belief that it would last for 30 days. Over the weekend, the briefing with the Commissioner as well as the meetings with the ministers have been revolving around the Emergency Act.For your awareness, messages between RCMP members, who thought was an intimate chat was shared to the public domain. CHRO sent an email today reminding members on officer conduct. A/Commr. Finn suggested that the focus should be placed on the member's safety. A discussion about expectations, conducts as well as the pitiful of social media will be given during the boots on the ground briefing.A/Commr. Finn shared that GSB provided an E-Binder on considerations and points of contact around the involvement and/or participation in the illegal protest. He also informed CROPS that we created a GSB Sensitive mailbox, thus please send any for your information or awareness situations so we can ensure we are in front of any issues. |

| SB | 13:00 | A/Commr. Finn | As for the deployment and personnel, 100 members are on their way to Ottawa as we speak. We will give them 6 to 7 days, thus so on the weekend we will discuss if we need to replace them.Rose-Marie Bernier shared that she was tasked to help and coordinate the mobilized. She shared that they will be centralizing the flight information, etc., thus she will reach out to every CROPS office. Rose-Marie reminded CROPS to apply the three IO's so we can process the expenses. A/Commr. Finn suggested that she should reach out to Silver Command as they have a list of deployed members.This weekend, we had a total of 1 800 RCMP members. Additionally, we had 14 public order units, however we will go down to 4. Lastly, the teams did extremely well and set a gold standard to meet for public order. |
| SB | 13:30 | Rose Marie Bernier | Rose-Marie Bernier contacted Silver Command and informed them that:Executive Director McGillis asked that SASU provide the group assistance with tracking where resources are coming from and where they are being allocated. | SB | 15:30 | C/Supt. Paradis | C/Supt. Paradis sent an email informing employees that: "OPP is asking for the number of members and employees deployed. Mike O'Beirne has provided the numbers for Protective, Frontline and POU. Our teams would not be included in that total. Could you please provide GSB with the number of members and employees within your team who have been tasked with the illegal protests.3:40 (2022-02-21): Dave Elms responded that ROCC has 8, NOC has 9 in total (4 employees per shift on 12 hr rotations) plus one supervisor.4:18 (2022-02-21): Sean McGillis responded that from his office, he had 5 resources deployed fulltime. He also asked for 2 FTEs to assist with mobilization efforts over the past week. Sandy Harvey can speak to what resources she has directly within the JIG. Additionally, there has been a number of resources deployed from across his branch to support this but he suspects that they are being captured under the Assist OPS numbers....or they should be.16:19 (2022-02-22): Mario Panizzon sent his numbers through a spreadsheet (available in our shared drive).9:54 (2022-02-22): Mike O'Beirne shared that they had a mobilization of over 1,184 personnel engaged in: Public Servants/Administration, General Duty, Traffic Control Points (TCP), Quick Response Teams (QRT) Vehicle-Mobile, Rapid Response Teams (RRT) Foot-Mobile, Prisoner Escort Teams (PET), Maintenance Plan-Perimeter, Command Element (A&P, Operations, Logistics, Mobilization) |
| SB | 16:39 | NOC | C/Supt. Baylin tasked NOC to send this message out on behalf of FPCO Financial Crime:As a result of the application of the EMMO, the RCMP and its policing partners provided information to financial institutions on persons and vehicles directly or indirectly involved in the prohibited activities in Ottawa. The financial institutions have since moved to freeze assets of the individuals that played a role in the Ottawa protest either by influencing others to participate or by being present. Recent reports indicate that individuals have since attended RCMP offices requesting the unfreezing of their assets.This afternoon, the RCMP provided information to financial institutions allowing them to unfreeze assets. Any person attending your office inquiring about this process should be directed to contact their financial institution as the authority rests with them.NOC completed the task and sent the message at 17:16 |
